

The 46th Annual Ohio District Circle K Convention

Delegate Information Sheet

All delegates and alternates are hereby informed of the accreditation procedures that will be followed at the 2003 Ohio District Circle K Convention.

All delegates and alternates must comply with these procedures in order to guarantee their voting privileges at the House of Delegates session on Saturday, March 1, 2003.

1. The delegate's home club must have all International and District Dues paid.
2. Each delegate and alternate must be a certified representative of their club.
3. All delegates and alternates must be registered at the convention. They must have been given a badge and they must wear the badge to enter the House of Delegates.
4. All delegates must be in attendance at the Divisional Caucus session on Friday night and Saturday morning in order to be able to vote for any of the officer candidates at the House of Delegates session on Saturday afternoon. Any delegate or alternate not attending their divisional caucus will not be permitted to vote for any of the officer candidates.
5. All delegates or alternates must present their delegate ribbon in order to be admitted to the House of Delegates.
6. Each Circle K Club in good standing is allowed two (2) delegates at the Ohio District Convention. Each club should also have two (2) alternates selected in the event that a delegate cannot fulfill their duties during the convention.
7. If a delegate cannot fulfill their duties, the alternate must report to the Credentials Chairperson prior to the session.
